

Green waste treatment platform, Bailly (78), France

Project Management mission for the construction of a green waste treatment platform in Bailly located near to the Château of Versailles (78) (France)

Project Owner: Bio Yvelines Service (An employment reintroduction company)

Value of works: €2.5 M excl. VAT

Work undertaken:

- Project studies (Site layout plan, determination of lots, provisional costs, etc.)
- Project Management Support to Project Owner for the procurement of public works contracts
- Management of execution of works contracts (French public domain = DET), and validation of compliance of works (VISA process in France)
- Assistance provided to the project owner during the acceptance of works and during the completion guarantee period.

